ABOUT MUSIC
TECH LAB

Music Technology Lab

For Juniors and Seniors

This exciting workshop offers training in hardware and software technology to participants who wish to try their hands at the creative process of composition. Publishing-standard computer notated scores; the use of MIDI files with software samples; digital audio through recording/processing/mixing, and live interactive computer performer setup. The state-of-the-art lab includes ten Mac G4 stations with Finale, Sibelius, protocols, Max/MSP, Digital Performer software and a fully equipped Digi001 recording/editing workstation. Student compositions will be performed.

Theory background and placement interview required.

EXTENDED DAY

9:00 am – 2:00 pm*

Morning Program and a choice of two classes listed below:

E=Elementary | J=Junior | S=Senior

Simple Symphony–E, J

A first ensemble experience for string players in grades 2-6.

Composers Corner – E, J

A listening lounge designed to expand the students' understanding of a composer's life and times. An earful of music, a glimpse of art history, and a look at the social setting of the times.

Piano for Non-Pianists – E, J, S

Group instruction in basic keyboard skills for non-pianists. An excellent opportunity for immersion in this instrument.

Creative Keyboard – E, J, S

The study of improvisation and keyboard harmony. Piano students learn to create melody and harmony while improving their understanding of music fundamentals. By audition.

World Drumming – E, J, S

Students use African drums to explore chant, rhythm and timbre as they discover song form, ensemble playing and improvisation. Knowledge of meter and note values is explored and reinforced.

Time for Chimes

Students learn to play beautiful bell-like tone chimes. An exciting approach to the study of pitch, rhythm, and music notation.

Chamber Music Workshop – J, S

Ensemble coaching for trios - quartets - quintets. Strings, Winds, Piano

Advanced Jazz Workshop – J, S

Coaching for small groups - improvisational techniques. Open to all advanced instrumentalists.

ABOUT
HB ROCKS!

HB Rocks!

Advanced Guitar Ensemble for Juniors and Seniors

A wonderful opportunity for student guitarists to enhance their understanding of rock, blues and jazz. Participants will explore chord changes, listen to great performers, and develop the appropriate stylistic technique for each musical arena. Group instruction and ensemble playing make this a challenging and exciting afternoon program.

MUSICAL THEATRE WORKSHOP

2:00 – 5:00 pm

Ages 9 – 15

Musical Theatre is a fun-filled way to learn multiple disciplines and skills! Improvisation, theatre games, classical mime, "selling the song" in vocal performance, and basic theatre dance. The cooperative atmosphere focuses on the joy of the final performance.
